

Military Months

April

Month of the Military Child

April is the Month of the Military Child. It honors the sacrifices of military families across the world, especially the dependent children. There are parades, seminars, and fairs throughout the month to celebrate.

Military Saves Month

This used to be Military Saves Week. It inspires military families to save money each month to build personal wealth, reach savings goals, and reduce debt.

May

Month of the Military Caregiver

“Month of the Military Caregiver” pays tribute to Veterans, troops, and military families’ caregivers. It is an observance that is meant to raise awareness of the wounded members as well.
